 - What makes this political party Nazis? Why are people upset about these guys gaining power.
 - People put them in this category because they are anti-immigrant, pro-Russia and also because the far-right Austrians were the group which became a part of Hitler's Axis powers. Technically the Axis was Italy, Japan and Germany but Austria was annexed as part of Germany early on in the war March 12th 1938.

- nearly 80 percent of eligible Austrians casting ballots.
- They won with 29% of the vote DOUBLE what they won the previous election.
- Will they be allowed to govern. That is a separate discussion one more complicated but essentially they need 92 of 183 parliamentary seats to form a government. This means they'd only be allowed to setup a government if they create a coalition government with another party. Most of the other parties will not "join" them in order form the coalition however the the OVP (Austrian People's Party...currently in power). They are the center-right.
 - OVP leader and Austrian Chancellor Karl Nehammer said the party would not support the FPO if the far-right party insisted on making its leader, Herbert Kickl, the chancellor.
 - Hervert Kickl is the leader of the FPO.

These events constitute particularly severe violations of religious freedom," the USCIRF said in a statement.

- - [CLIPS] Dock workers strike on east coast

- According to AP...The union representing 45,000 striking U.S. dockworkers, International Longshoremen's Association, at East and Gulf coast ports has reached a deal to suspend a three-day strike.
- Tentative dock worker deal provides 62% wage increase over six years. They agreed to suspend the strike until January 15. I wonder if it is because of the elections in November.

- [NO CLIP, ADVISE TO GO GOOGLE THE VIDEO...VIDEO DOESNT HAVE VALUABLE AUDIO] !!!STORY DISCOVERED THROUGH TOP TRENDING "X" POST LIST!!! BIGFOOT IS FOUND a ten-second clip (where the cameraman soiled himself) shows the hairy, human-like creature propped up against a tree in the Parallel Forest in Lawton Oklahoma, munching on a leafy branch, before noticing an onlooker peering through the tree lines.
- It looks real to me and had a family member in California working on his farm see a Bigfoot like creature. I think they do exist and who knows what mutative genes it comes from. Maybe a rare species.
- Lawton is a city in and the county seat of Comanche County, in the U.S. state of Oklahoma.[7] Located in southwestern Oklahoma, approximately 87 mi (140 km) southwest of Oklahoma City

- If you've been to the Wichita Mountains, you've encountered picturesque scenery, waterfalls, rugged terrain, and diverse wildlife. But there's one place most visitors don't know exists - The Parallel Forest.
- The 'haunted' Parallel Forest in Oklahoma was built by the federal government as an experiment to deal with the effects of the Dust Bowl. Over 20,000 red cedars were planted exactly 6 feet apart in every direction on over 16 acres. As you can imagine, a creepy forest so uniform-looking has brought with it many creepy stories of hauntings, urban legends, satanic rituals, and everything else that can scare the living daylights out of you. Take the journey to this haunted forest and see what encounters you stumble upon in this misfit piece of land.

 - [CLIP] October 5th 2011 - American businessman Steve Jobs, a pioneer of the personal computer era who co-founded Apple and transformed it into one of the world's most successful companies, died at age 56.
 - October 6th 1973 - Yom Kippur War
On this day in 1973, on the Jewish holy day of Yom Kippur, Egypt and Syria attacked Israel, which suffered heavy casualties, but Israeli forces successfully fought back, and the war eventually ended inconclusively.
The Israeli victory on the ground was also overwhelming. Israeli units drove back Syrian forces from the Golan Heights, took control of the Gaza Strip and the Sinai Peninsula from Egypt, and drove Jordanian forces from the West Bank. Importantly, the Israelis were left in sole control of Jerusalem. It Sounds familiar.
